

Check List

Qualifications for Services:

Student's current administrator will make initial assessment of qualifications for short/long-term H&H services with medical verification or district documentation (ex. AS-90) of extenuating circumstances. The school will use the following guidelines:

- Student lives within JSD's boundaries and is currently enrolled in a JSD's school.
- Student is confined at home/hospital due to physical/emotional illness, injury, etc.
- Student has or expects to miss 10 or more consecutive school days.
- Medical documentation is current.
- IEP students are referred to Special Education.

Short-Term: Student is unable to attend a minimum of 10 consecutive days, but not more than 45 consecutive school days.

- Student continues with current schedule (as appropriate) and teachers.
- School provides H&H teacher (for assistance call Student Support xt. 88187)
- School collects homework (every subject area that is deemed "appropriate" for H&H must send work home – access to knowledge for all students.)
- School teacher will provide homework, grade assignments and submit quarter grades like any other student they teach.

Long-Term: Student is unable to attend school for 46 consecutive school days or longer.

- Have parents call Student Support (801-567-8326) to set up an appointment with the Student Support Administrator at the District Office.
- Students will be enrolled in online courses through Utah Students Connect.
- If there is less than half of the quarter remaining, the school may choose to provide H&H Services with the student's teachers until the end of the quarter.
- Student Support will send Att. Sec., Registrar & Counselor the student's schedule.
- School enters schedule (subject & teacher) into Skyward.
- Student Support will put in all Long-term student's grades.
