

Check List

Qualifications for Services:

Student's current administrator will make the initial assessment of qualifications for short/long-term Home & Hospital services with medical verification or district documentation (i.e. AS-90) of extenuating circumstances. The school will use the following guidelines:

- Student lives within JSD's boundaries and is currently enrolled in a JSD school.
- Student is confined at home/hospital due to physical/emotional illness, injury, etc.
- Student has or expects to miss 10 or more consecutive school days.
- Medical documentation is current.
- IEP students are referred through Special Education

Short-Term: The student is unable to attend a minimum of 10 consecutive days, but not more than 45 consecutive school days.

- Student continues with current schedule (as appropriate) and teachers.
- School provides H&H teacher (for assistance call Student Support ext. 88187).
- School collects homework (every subject area that is deemed "appropriate" for H&H must send work home-access to knowledge for all students).
- Regularly assigned teacher(s) will provide homework, grade assignments, and submit quarter grades like any other student they teach.

Long-Term: The student is unable to attend school for 46 consecutive school days or longer.

- Have parents call Student Support (801)567-8187 to discuss Home & Hospital needs with the Student Support Services Administrator at the District Office.
- Students will continue to be enrolled as an active student in their boundary school, with their classes altered to reflect H&H status.
- Classes will be determined on an individual basis based on their class completion.
- If there is less than half a quarter remaining, the school may choose to provide H&H services with the student's teachers using CANVAS until the end of the quarter.
- Student Support will send correspondence to the attendance office, registrar and counselor about the student's schedule.
- School enters schedule (Subject & Teacher) into Skyward.
- Student Support will provide the registrar with grades for all H&H students at the end of each quarter.
